

CPD Lectures and Seminars

Andrew is a regular lecturer and trainer within his areas of expertise to practitioners and MSc students and he has lectured widely in the North and in London to the Society of Construction Law, CIArb, RICS, Lawyers and Insolvency Practitioners as well as to construction and engineering professionals. Examples include:

- The meaning of "Contractors & Subcontractors' constant best endeavours to prevent delay in JCT contracts" – (1997) 13 Const. L. J. 293 [and footnoted in Keating on Building/construction Contracts, 7th & 8th (latest) Editions (p.770 fn 8)];
- The Law Reform Contributory Negligence Act 1945 - Arbitration the Journal of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, 2001;
- The social control of land: The machinery of Part II of the L&T Act 1954 – some recent cases, 2002;
- CLT Building Contracts Conference London: Claims under the contract and at common law, 2003;
- 2003 Cradle to the Grave demonstration arbitration case study Professional liability and Office Holders – a presentation for a leading Insolvency group, Coventry, 2004;
- Old NRM5 property litigation weekend : The 1954 Act reforms – where are we now, Warwick University 2004;
- Claims under the contract and at common law, Leeds, 2004;
- Professional liability of construction professionals, Society of Construction Law 2004;
- Expert witnesses practice for construction and property litigation, RICS NW branch presentation, 2005;
- Keble College Oxford: the International Association of Advocates: (an introduction to English Contract Law: Is there a contract?, letters of Intent & formation battles), 2006 & 2007;
- Construction Adjudication – core principles & future possibilities, CIArb Northumbria branch 2006;
- The CLT 2006 Construction law conference, London: The professional liability of construction professionals, 2006;
- Arbitration update: North West Branch CIArb,2007;
- Adjudication, Risk & Insolvency: CLT Construction Insolvency Conference, London 2008;
- Property Development: Easements update, Enterprise Chambers 2009;
- Mega Construction: Presented to post graduate students of 'Mega Structures' at a leading University in Seoul, South Korea: International Construction Contracts - Lessons Learned and to be Learned, Spring 2010.
- Acting as Advocate in a Chancery Demonstration Mediation at the Law Society in York and for the Leeds law society 2010

Andrew's terms and conditions for seminar provision to groups of practitioners are available on request by emailing andrewnoble@NobleADR.com